

CT - 235

Rust Removal

Introduction

CT-235 specifically designed to remove transition element oxides, especially iron oxides by forming a completely soluble coordinated complex stains from painted surfaces, cleaning pipes and systems contain rust. It is highly effective formula where other products have failed or produced limited results.

Physical Properties

Appearance.....	Colorless
S.G.....	1.2
PH.....	5 (10% sol.)
Flash Point.....	Nonflammable
Odor.....	Odorless
Solubility.....	Completely soluble

Application

Water used for preparing the solution must be free from residual chlorine or other oxidizing agent. The specific dosages will be specified by our technical representative who can also assist you during application procedure.

Safety and Handling

- Wear protective gloves & goggles while handling.
- In case of splashes in the eye or skin flush with plenty of water.

Storage

- Keep the container closed all time.
- Keep away from direct sunlight.

Packaging

CT-235 is available in 25 kg containers.